NEWBERRY, S. C., TUESDAY, AUGUST 22, 1922.

TWICE A WEEK, $2.00 A YEAR

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS PROSPEROUS PROSPERITY

Prosperity, August 21.—Mrs. O. B. Simpson entertained at a lovely children's party Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6 at her home in McNary street in honor of her brother Willard Warren of Richmond, Va., and her son, O. B., Jr. This was one of the principal events of the week in children's social world and about fifty kiddies assembled for the happy occasion. The little guests were entertained with various games, after which the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Warren, served delicious ice cream and cake.

Another charming party was given Friday evening when Rev. and Mrs. S. W. Hahn entertained the Luther league of Grace church. The lower floor was thrown together, while vases and baskets of summer flowers were used around the room with pleasing effect. Numerous games and chatting filled the evening with pleasure, which was later rounded off with the serving of a tempting ice course.

The annual reunion of Co. G, 13th regiment, will be held Thursday, August 24th, at Youngs Grove. The barbecue dinner furnished by Nichols and Garrett is an annual event and is always anticipated with keen pleasure by those attending. The exercises will begin at 10:30 with Miss Willie Mae Wise presiding. The welcome address will be given by Miss Ethel Saner, president of the William Lester chapter. The address of the occasion will be delivered by George D. Brown, Jr., well known young insurance agent and farmer of Prosperity. A special program will be rendered by the children's chapter. The public is cordially invited.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO OPEN INFORMATION BUREAUS

Both Tourists and Farmers to Be Benefited by the Opening of New Department

Announcement is made that the Newberry chamber of commerce plans to open a new department in connection with their regular routine of activities toward the upbuilding of a greater Newberry city and county. The new department to be opened will be known as the Tourist's and Farmer's Information bureau, a department where the many tourists passing through Newberry can go and get detailed information concerning condition of the highways throughout the country and the shortest and best routes to various cities throughout the entire South, and where farmers can go and get information concerning diversified farming in all of its branches.

In speaking of the opening of this information bureau Secretary McDaniel said: "This matter was discussed at an official meeting of the officers and directors held on Wednesday, August 16, and it was unanimously decided that this department should be opened at the earliest date convenient.

"While we have maintained a farmers information bureau for some time, it is planned to add many features which will be of greater benefit to the farmers of Newberry and surrounding counties. Of course, this part of the work will be carried out in cooperation with the two demonstration agents who have offices in the same building and the direction of this work will be under the supervision of the agricultural committee of our organization and the two demonstration agents.

"As to the tourists information bureau, it will be carried out entirely under the supervision of our organization. The need of this department has been felt for a long time, in view of the fact that tourists and traveling men who pass through Newberry do not have any place where they can go to get information such as will be given out by us. To give this department publicity, a large sign is being painted and will be placed on the corner of Main and College streets on the side on the building occupied by Hattiwanger and Carpenter. This sign directs tourists and farmers to go to the chamber of commerce for information."

Citizens Should Cooperate
Mr. McDaniel said further that every citizen of Newberry should cooperate in every possible way with this department and he urges them to do so. When a tourist stops and asks for information send him to the chamber of commerce, likewise the farmers. The tourists will not only be given what information they desire, but will be told something of the many advantages offered in the city of Newberry and in Newberry county. A register will be kept in the office and the name of every tourist seeking information will be registered, with a view of mailing to each of them printed matter concerning Newberry from time to time.

Special Services at Unity
Beginning Thursday evening of this week a series of services will be held at Unity. Rev. J. P. Pressly of Due West will be the preacher. He is a young man of unusual ability, and all are invited to attend the services.

COL. C. J. PURCELL CLAIMS FIELD OF COTTON NO WEEVIL

But If the Insect Should Strike Grown Boll Then Look Out—Worse Than Tire Punctures

Col. C. J. Purcell claims that the boll weevil hasn't got his cotton. The boll weevil has got lots of other people's cotton and is going to get all the cotton before he is done with his job. We hope not, but Col. Purcell's field may yet be like a field of cotton near the home of the reporter. The field is situated just beyond Mr. Jno. A. Lindsay's, college ward. Mr. Geo. P. Hill, living near by, has been occupying some of his time going through the patch looking for punctures. Week after week he couldn't find a puncture. The cotton was large and growing beautifully with its well developed bolls, all seemingly weevilless, the lovely green saucers of the unpunctured bolls being well pleasing to the eye. Other people's cotton was ruined by the bad boll wicked weevil. All around, everywhere it seemed, the dreaded thing was getting in its work of ruin. Not so in this particular and favored field, where the prospect was promising up to about two weeks ago, when, lo and behold. One day Mr. Hill saw a puncture. The weevil had started to take possession of that patch. He was there with both feet. The weevil has charge. Col. Purcell had better look for punctures in his cotton bolls. Punctures in cotton bolls are worse than punctures in automobile tires.

WEST END DEFEATS LEXINGTON AND LAURENS

West End made it four for the week by winning Friday and Saturday. On Friday Lexington could do nothing with Smith or Crooks while West End hit all parts of the park. Mills led with four hits.

On Saturday Werts and Swink had a pitchers' duel with Werts having the advantage. Mills again led the hitters while the fielding of Mills and Hardeman and a peg by Crooks were the features.

Aged Minister to Wed

Anderson Daily Mail.

Rev. J. W. Wollong, a retired Methodist minister now living in Columbia, will be married to Mrs. Fannie Haynes Wilton of Philadelphia the latter part of this month. Dr. Wollong was pastor of the Methodist church of Anderson, the only Methodist church here at that time, more than 30 years ago, and shortly afterwards became a missionary to Brazil. His wife died while in Brazil and a memorial tablet was placed in the old church to her memory.

Mrs. Hilton, the bride-elect, was originally a Miss Haynes, of Spartanburg. Her mother was a Lee of Virginia, and her father a Haynes of this state.

Dr. Wollong is at present chaplain of the senate.

A Card of Thanks

Please allow us the privilege in your paper to thank the many friends for the kindness shown us during the sickness and death of our precious mother. We sincerely thank each and everyone who sent their cars to our assistance, also for the many beautiful flowers. May God's richest blessings ever rest and abide with you every one is our prayer.

GET ACQUAINTED MEETING CHAPPELLS NEXT THURSDAY

One Hundred Cars to Go From Newberry Loaded With Newberry Merchants and Business Men

Friday a committee from the retail trade committee of the Newberry chamber of commerce, consisting of McHardy Mower, Miss T. E. Salter and Hal Kohn, went to Chappells and met with a committee from that town looking towards arranging a sort of friendship or get-better-acquainted gathering in Chappells so that the people of this city could go up there and meet the folks of Chappells. A good meeting was held in Mr. Coleman's cotton office with representatives from the different business houses of Chappells attending. The object of the trip was explained and heartily approved by all and arrangements were made to have the meeting Thursday, the 24th, at 4:00 p. m. It is hoped by the retail trade committee to have at least one hundred cars go up from Newberry, each one full of people, to meet with the Chappells people. It is thoroughly understood that there will be no business discussed, at least Newberry is carrying none of her problems to Chappells, but every one in this city realizes that this city must be up and doing if the volume of business from Chappells is diverted this way. Just Thursday it was noted that the creamery from Greenwood was making a collection of cream bought prior to this trip. Certainly this business and much other should be encouraged to come to the county seat and the people of the Chappells community feel very friendly towards their county seat, yet much remains to be done before the flow is directed to Newberry, and a few trips of acquaintance will do more than anything else to cement the two towns together. At the gathering there will be no great flow of oratory, yet each place will have some one to say a word of welcome and appreciation.

Another committee visited Whitmire Friday and held an enthusiastic conference with representatives from that place. Messrs. E. A. Carpenter, Marvin Sumner and C. P. McDaniel made this trip and they reported a fine gathering with much enthusiasm. They did not arrange for a general gathering, but plan to do so at a later date. The plan of the retail trade committee is to make trips to all of the communities of this county and meet with the people and learn to know them better. The unofficial motto of the retail trade committee seems to be "Get acquainted with your neighbor, you may like him."

EPPS BROWN OF ATLANTA WINS GOLF TOURNAMENT

Young Atlanta Player Defeats Berry Fleming of Augusta in Contest at Asheville

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 19.—J. Epps Brown, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga., 19 years old, won the annual invitation golf tournament at the Asheville Country club here today, defeating Berry Fleming of Augusta, 6 up and 5 to go in the 36-hole finals.

Young Brown mentioned here as the winner is the son of our friend J. Epps Brown, president of the Southern Bell Telephone company and a former Newberrian. The Herald and News takes pleasure in felicitating Mr. and Mrs. Brown and the young man as well on the success he is making not only in the golf tournament but in other lines also.

Follow Newberry

Edgefield Advertiser.

The great need of Edgefield right now is a market, such as Greenwood, Newberry and some other towns have. But these markets are only possible where farm and home demonstration agents promote them. Who in Edgefield would individually establish such a public market? No one will. But in counties that have these public servants markets are established by them.

If we could learn the whole truth about all our neighbors overnight, we would probably have a new set of friends as well as a new set of enemies by tomorrow.

COL. W. H. HUNT WILL SPEAK AT CHAPPELLS THURSDAY

Plans Being Made to Make Gathering a Big Event

Announcement is made by the retail trade committee of the Newberry chamber of commerce that Col. W. H. Hunt will be the principal speaker from Newberry at the big booster gathering to be held at Chappells on next Thursday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock. The committee will hold a meeting in the office of the chamber of commerce tomorrow (Tuesday) afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, at which time plans will be completed for the big gathering.

It is hoped by the committee that every automobile owner in the city will turn out to go to Chappells on Thursday, and that every automobile will be filled. Ladies are extended a special invitation to make the trip. Every one who plans to go should meet at the chamber of commerce office promptly at 2:45 o'clock so the start can be made promptly at 3:00 o'clock.

It has not been announced who will be the speaker from Chappells, but every one can rest assured that they will have a good speaker and that the trip and the meeting will be one of pleasure and one to be long remembered. Come on, citizens of Newberry, let's go to Chappells one hundred per cent strong!

In Honor of Mrs. Boozer

Lexington cor. The State.

Wednesday afternoon Misses Ebird and Mrs. J. D. Carroll entertained in honor of their guests, Mrs. T. Q. Boozer of Newberry and Miss Sadie Hewitt of Marion. Four tables were arranged for the 16 invited guests, making a merry, congenial party. Mrs. Boozer held the top score and was presented with a box of correspondence cards. The consolation bridge score fell to Miss Veda Barre. Attractive prizes were presented to the honor guests. After the games, bisque ice cream and chocolate wafers were served.

THE FAMILY REUNION

The family reunion has become the most popular recreation during the summer in this part of the county. I have been present very frequently and have found many good results.

On the third of August I attended the Richardson family reunion, which took place at the home of Mr. T. P. Richardson near the St. Paul's church. This is one of the oldest reunions in this community. The attendance was good, and the occasion a very happy one. During the afternoon, I conducted the family worship. The family record has already been given; and, perhaps, may be omitted at this time.

On August the fifth I attended the Livingston family reunion which took place at the home of Mr. Mattie Stone of Jolly Street. Here again the attendance was good and a very fine spirit prevailed. The Rev. W. H. Dutton of Newberry was present, and in the afternoon during family worship, I called upon him for some remarks. He responded in a very fitting manner. I have already given the family record; and, perhaps, it may be omitted now.

On last Saturday, August twelfth, I attended the John Kinard family reunion, which met at the home of Mr. J. A. Kinard near the Bachman's Chapel church. Again, the attendance was good and the day a very pleasant one. This was the first gathering of this sort for the family, and the following is the family record. Miss Ella Kinard married Mr. Jas. Cook. They have seven children. Mr. Geo. I. Kinard married Miss Carry Sligh. They have five children. Mr. J. A. Kinard married Miss Belle Livingston. They have seven children.

"The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen."

NEWBERRY CLUB BOYS HOLD ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT

On August 17 and 18 thirty-four club boys, six of whom were Pig club members and 28 of whom were Corn club members, held their annual encampment at the Little Mountain picnic grounds. The event was in charge of County Agent Mills. The boys came from all sections of the county, but the majority of them were from the Mt. Bethel-Garmany, O'Neill, Trinity and Midway clubs. The attendance was limited because of weather conditions and "fodder" pulling. Mr. Mills was assisted in the management of the camp by A. A. McKeown, district agent, and B. O. Williams, assistant state boys' club agent.

The club boys brought their "rations" with them, enough being cooked for the first day's supply. The second day the food was prepared by the boys and their leader according to the regular camp style. During the first day the time was spent in playing ball and pitching horseshoes. Two teams motored to Chappin and staged a baseball game, which was greatly enjoyed by the youngsters. At evening the principal feature of amusement was a camp fire, staged at the picnic pavilion, around which the club boys enjoyed a most wonderful time, with music, songs and short talks furnishing entertainment. The Little Mountain school house was used as "barracks" for the clubsters at night. Most of them got to sleep not later than 2:00 o'clock a. m.

The second day was largely taken up with the instruction course given by Messrs. Mills, McKeown and Williams. Subjects taught the boys were: "Cover Crops," "Crop Rotations," "Cattle," "Hogs," and other things pertaining to their club work.

The club boys "broke camp" immediately after dinner and went to their homes, rejoicing over an event which they described as the best time of their life.

NEWS OF TROOP NO 3

Troop No. 3, Newberry's youngest troop of Boy Scouts, held a very enthusiastic meeting last Thursday night in the Legion hall, the regular meeting place of Troops 1 and 3. After the business session, which included the reading and adopting of the troop constitution, a general discussion of matters pertaining to the welfare of the troop was indulged in by all members, after which the election of a patrol leader was called for. Scout Emory Bowman receiving the greatest number of votes was elected patrol leader of the Panther patrol. John L. Epps is the leader of the Tigers. The troop was very fortunate in having as its guests some very distinguished scouts from other troops who were called on for speeches. First Class Scribe Walter McIntosh of Troop 11, Columbia, responded in a very pleasing manner by saying that he was glad to be the guest of a troop where he felt at home. Senior Patrol Leader Wm. Eddy of Troop 1, Newberry, was so pleased with the conduct and general demeanor of some members of Troop 3, that he offered to effect a transfer of this member to Troop 1. Needless to say his motion was ruled down immediately.

During the social period of the program a race was conducted which caused much amusement for both the participants and the spectators. At the conclusion of the regular program the scoutmaster, Howard Overby announced that a drawing contest would be held and a prize given the winner. Much excitement prevailed for the prize and method of drawing were both a secret. The prize, a box of Sunshine Dainties, was won by one of the visitors, First Class Roy Anderson, who very liberally dispensed "sunshine" to all present.
